WHAT MAKES A LIFE WORTH LIVING?
CONNECT: HUGH MACKAY

The Good Life
As part of a national author tour, social researcher and writer Hugh Mackay will talk about his new book The Good Life, at a presentation hosted by UOW’s Institute for Innovation in Business and Social Research (IIBSoR).

Date: Friday, 10 May 2013
Time: 12.30pm–1.30pm
Where: Room 2–4, UniCentre, Bldg 11 University of Wollongong
RSVP: iibsor-info@uow.edu.au or ph: 4221 3475 by Monday 6 May to reserve your place

A light lunch will be served shortly before the start of presentation.

Hugh Mackay has spent 40 years asking Australians about their lives, loves, hopes, ambitions, fears and passions. Now, in his new book The Good Life, he addresses the ultimate question: What makes a life worth living?

His conclusion, drawn from his research, is provocative and passionately argued.

Hugh Mackay is involved in a range of initiatives at the University of Wollongong and the Institute for Innovation in Business and Social Research (IIBSoR), where he is Professor of Social Science.

Copies of Hugh’s book will be available for purchase and signing after the presentation.

Nick Rheinberger from ABC Illawarra radio will MC the event and lead a Q&A session after Hugh’s presentation.
